

5/7/2013

Materials (CD-R contains all except for Saikosai no Wana)

Press release (English version, Japanese version)

“Serious suspicions arise concerning the committees for the inquest of prosecution (directly controlled by the Supreme Court) that made Ichiro Ozawa into a criminal defendant (Did such committees actually exist?)”

Cover letter by Karel van Wolferen

Saikosai no Wana: The Trap for Ozawa, Takehiko Shiki, Kotaro Yamazaki (K&K Press).

Shukan Post, pages 50-53 of April 5 edition, pages 52-54 of April 17 edition

“New Serious Suspicions Concerning the Committees for the Inquest of Prosecution that Made Ichiro Ozawa into a Criminal Defendant.”

PDF file

The Supreme Court manipulated the fictitious decision made to Ozawa.

The committees for the inquest of prosecution did not exist.

The meetings for the inquest of prosecution was not held.

By Takehiko Shiki

Takehiko Shiki

1942 Born in Seoul and taken to Japan at the end of World War II.

Tokyo Metropolitan University, School of Science and Engineering

1966 Entered Asahi Kasei Corporation. Worked mainly in the residential housing division (Hebel Haus).

2004 Left company (executive at time of leaving).

2010 Started blog called “Civil Opinions Blog.”

12/2012 Wrote a book called Saikosai no Wana: The Trap for Ozawa (K&K Press).

3/2013 Wrote “New Serious Suspicions Concerning the Committees for the Inquest of Prosecution that Made Ichiro Ozawa into a Criminal Defendant” appearing in the April 5 edition of the Shukan Post.

If you would like to know the details, please call Shiki at this number

